

Point of the Matter Dialogue - Protecting, Preparing and Responding: the International Committee of the Blue Shield

Protecting, Preparing and Responding: the International Committee of the Blue Shield

Founded in 1996 to protect the world's cultural heritage threatened by wars and natural disasters, the ICBS has been described as the "Cultural Red Cross". Four of its founding members, recipients of the 2012 IIC Advocate Award, talk about the Committee's formation and evolution, as well as the future challenges that the ICBS faces.

Participants:

International Committee of the Blue Shield

Boylan, Patrick

Bumbaru, Dinu

MacKenzie, George

Varalamoff, Marie-Thérèse

Podany, Jerry

Date:

Wednesday, 23 January, 2013 - 00:00

Place:

London

UK

